Alpharetta Official Offices Directory 2026

Immigration, licensing, the tag office, water, tax, passports, vital records, the apostille, city hall, schools, health and Türkiye matters, with addresses and phone numbers in one place.

SHORT ANSWER

Alpharetta has no USCIS office, no immigration court, no Turkish consulate and no 311 line, but the license, the tag, the property assessment and the water account all sit in one building at 11575 Maxwell Road. Immigration business goes to Atlanta, where the two immigration courts are in two different buildings. The apostille comes not from the Secretary of State but from the GSCCCA in Atlanta. For passports there is an acceptance facility inside the city, at the Webb Bridge post office.

TWO COURTS, TWO BUILDINGS

The Ted Turner Drive and W. Peachtree Street courts are in the same city but not the same place, more than two miles apart. Read the address and the suite number on your notice again the day before your hearing; going to the wrong building can mean missing it. The Ted Turner Drive building also holds the ICE ERO office in Suite 522, but going to a hearing and going to an ICE check-in are not the same thing. From Alpharetta, downtown parking is a real problem, so the practical route is GA 400 down to North Springs station and MARTA from there; allow two hours for a morning hearing. We are not printing USCIS office hours because we could not verify them, so follow the address, floor and time on your appointment notice.

Passports, vital records, marriage licenses and the apostille

OFFICE	ADDRESS · PHONE · NOTE
USPS Webb Bridge Post Office (passport acceptance)	4575 Webb Bridge Road, Alpharetta GA 30005 · the only acceptance facility inside the city. Its USPS page carries a generic block saying there are no passport services at this location; that block is a template error, because the State Department's own acceptance facility data file lists it as a passport facility. Book through the USPS appointment system and confirm the service.
Fulton County Clerk, North Service Center (passports)	7741 Roswell Rd, Suite 253, Sandy Springs GA 30350 · (404) 613-5313 · the $35 acceptance fee is money order only · appointments to 4 p.m., last walk-in 3:45, walk-ins as capacity allows
Fulton County Clerk, Downtown (passports)	136 Pryor Street, Suite C155 J2-101, Atlanta GA 30303 · cash or money order
Urgent U.S. passport	Passport agency appointments are free: passportappointment.travel.state.gov or 877-487-2778. Take the address and hours from your appointment confirmation, not from third-party listings.
Vital records (birth and death certificates)	Fulton County Board of Health, Health and Human Services North, 4700 North Point Parkway, Alpharetta GA 30022 · (770) 520-7500 (option 1, then option 4) · $25 including one certified copy, $5 per extra copy · American Express is not accepted · Georgia events only. Two of the agency's pages disagree on the counter hours, so call before you go.
A warning about the old address	This center replaced the old North Fulton Regional Health Center. The old address was 3155 Royal Drive; those offices closed in April 2026 and the new center opened on April 16, 2026. Third-party directories still publish the old address and still describe the center as a "free clinic". Both are wrong.
Fulton County Probate Court (marriage license), North Service Center	7741 Roswell Rd, Suite 219, Sandy Springs GA 30350 · 404-613-7638 · weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. · $68.50, or $28.50 with a premarital education certificate · the service centers are cashless and American Express is not accepted · two official pages disagree about appointments, so call
Probate Court main office	136 Pryor Street SW, 2nd floor, Suite C230, Atlanta GA 30303 · 404-612-4640
GSCCCA (apostille, the only authority)	1875 Century Blvd, Suite 100, Atlanta GA 30345 · 404-327-6023 · notary@gsccca.org · weekdays 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., no appointment · $3 per document · walk-ins usually under 20 minutes
Secretary of State (Great Seal)	Issues no apostilles; it only certifies documents for countries that are not parties to the Hague Convention (404-656-2871). Türkiye is a party, so your document goes to the GSCCCA.

CUSTODY AND THE 48-HOUR RULE: KEEP YOUR STATUS DOCUMENT REACHABLE

In Georgia, when a person is confined in a county or municipal jail for any period, however short, a reasonable effort must be made within 48 hours to determine their nationality and whether they are lawfully present (O.C.G.A. 42-4-14). If lawful status cannot be verified from the documents the person is carrying, verification is made by a query to the Law Enforcement Support Center at the Department of Homeland Security. The documents the statute lists are a state driver's license or identification card from the approved list, a Form I-94, a permanent resident card (I-551), a valid Nexus card, a valid Global Entry card, or a valid passport showing that the person is a US citizen, has been issued a visa, or is a citizen of a visa waiver country. Turkey is not in the Visa Waiver Program, so a Turkish passport meets that list only together with a visa record. The duty sits with the keeper of the jail, which means the county sheriff rather than the Alpharetta police; Alpharetta has its own detention area and an arrest here can also end up in the Fulton County jail. The statute frames the confinement as being in compliance with Article 36 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, so you can ask that your consulate be notified. What the law does not do: it does not make Alpharetta police ICE officers, it does not require officers to stop anyone to ask about status, and it puts no enforcement duty on schools, libraries or hospitals. If you are taken into custody, ask to speak with an immigration attorney before you discuss your status.
