Atlanta Official Offices Directory 2026

Immigration, licensing, tag offices, taxes, passports, vital records, apostille, city services, schools, health and Türkiye matters in one place.

SHORT ANSWER

Atlanta has one USCIS field office and one biometrics center, in different buildings. It has two immigration courts, also in different buildings and more than two miles apart, and the detained docket is heard at Stewart in Lumpkin. Reread the court address and suite number on your notice the day before your hearing. Apostilles come from the GSCCCA in Atlanta, not the Secretary of State. There is no Turkish consulate in Atlanta; the Miami Consulate General serves Georgia.

TWO COURTS, TWO BUILDINGS

The Ted Turner Drive and W. Peachtree Street courts are in the same city but not the same place, more than two miles apart. Read the address and suite number on your notice again the day before your hearing; going to the wrong building can mean missing it. The Ted Turner Drive building also houses the ICE ERO office (Suite 522), but a hearing and an ICE check-in are not the same appointment. We are not printing USCIS office hours because we could not verify them; follow the address, floor and time on your appointment notice.
