Enterprise Official Offices Directory 2026: Which Door, Which Government

The real job of this guide is not to give addresses but to show you who the counterparty is. There is no city government here: on every item you face either the county, the state or the federal side, and the city name on your envelope points to none of them.

SHORT ANSWER

The spine of this guide is one sentence: there is no city government here, so which door you use is decided not by your envelope but by who holds which job. The county's own document states that in Nevada county commissioners are the legally constituted town boards for all unincorporated towns, and all official governmental decisions are made by the Board of County Commissioners. The advisory board here is appointed: it cannot issue licenses, levy fines or adopt ordinances. Three expensive mistakes up front. First, at the court: counter filing happens in one single continuous window a day, 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., and in this series some courts split the day into three separate windows; do not carry that warning here. Second, at the same place: the court does not docket unsolicited faxes and electronic submissions and discards them without notifying the sender. Third, on passports: the status-neutral driving card is not accepted for a passport application, while a regular Nevada license is treated as primary identification.

The chain of counterparties has three links

- Policing and daily order: the agency that covers the whole county, the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, headed by the elected Clark County sheriff. There is no city code officer to call. The agency's area command here is named Enterprise Area Command, yet even that command's own address is printed as Las Vegas, NV 89113. We do not publish the station street address, but that line alone sums up the thesis of this guide.
- Political representation and services: the Clark County Board of County Commissioners. The person who represents you is a county commissioner elected from a district for four years. The Enterprise Town Advisory Board is a channel in this chain, not a government: its five members are appointed by the county commission for two years, members must reside within the town boundary, and its job is to give views on zoning, planning and public works and to carry residents' concerns to the commission. We do not publish the names of board members, because the new term begins in January 2027 and the list will change.
- Litigation: your immigration case is a federal matter, not a county one. There is no local body here to answer any question about immigration paperwork, and if there were, these matters would still be federal.

- The town is its own tax district, but the county holds both the money and the decision. The county's own definition describes an unincorporated town as a defined area where additional services are provided paid for by residents' property taxes, and says each town counts as a separate tax district; but all fiscal and legal responsibility rests with the county commission. So there is a budget line in the town's name and no government.

Who holds which job: the spine of this guide

JOB	COUNTERPARTY
Building permits and inspection	The county's building and fire prevention division
Zoning and planning	The county's comprehensive planning division
Business license	The county's business license division, (702) 455-0174
Code complaints, debris, graffiti, unpermitted construction, short-term rentals	The county's code enforcement and public response office, (702) 455-4191
Electricity and gas complaints	The state regulator
Water complaints	The county commission. The regulator does not regulate water districts and says so by name
Sewer	Clark County Water Reclamation District; the responsible party is the property owner from the start
Refuse complaints	The county's franchise services division . The regulator has no authority at all over refuse collection
Driving credential, registration, insurance, emissions	The state agency. There is no branch inside the town
School	Clark County School District , one district countywide
Marriage license and birth certificate	The county. There is no window inside the town
Property valuation and the tax bill	Clark County Assessor and Clark County Treasurer
Parks	The county parks system. There is no such thing as a city park
Library	Las Vegas-Clark County Library District
Transit	The regional agency

THE COMPLAINT CHANNEL IS NOT 311, AND THE COUNTY ADDS ITS OWN WARNING

- We found no line operated here under that name. The channel is called Fix It Clark County and the unit behind it is the county's code enforcement and public response office. That unit handles zoning, neglected property, graffiti, unpermitted construction and short-term rental complaints.
- General line (702) 455-4191, with separate lines for graffiti at (702) 455-4509 and short-term rentals at (702) 455-8314.
- The office is open Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., closed Friday, Saturday and Sunday. So a problem you find on Friday waits until Monday.
- And this warning has to appear here, because the county writes it itself: name, address and telephone number are requested because further information may be needed, and if you provide your name or other personal information, that information may be disclosed even if you have asked to remain anonymous. The county gives its reason too: everything it collects is public under the public records law. A newcomer who assumes a complaint will stay confidential is mistaken, and if you are a tenant that concerns you directly.
- Check your address in the county's jurisdiction lookup before you write to any agency. The county has a tool for this that tells you which jurisdiction your address falls in; a letter sent to the wrong government is the most common mistake made here.

Immigration court

ITEM	INFORMATION
Court	The only immigration court in Nevada, in the county seat. Not inside the town
Address	110 North City Parkway, Suite 400, Las Vegas, NV 89106

Visiting and counter hours	7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., one single continuous window

Fax and electronic submissions	Not accepted unless specifically requested by staff or the judge. Unsolicited submissions are not docketed and are discarded without review and without notice to the sender
Parking and transit	The court's own text: there is a private parking lot nearby at 3.00 dollars per half hour , and a restaurant directly across from the lot gives one hour of validation . What follows matters: parking and public transportation are very limited in this area

Building entry	Visitors are escorted from the entry lobby by an officer to the fourth floor hearing lobby and check in at the fourth floor security point. All electronic devices are turned off before entering the lobby
Security	Metal detector and bag check on every visit; you may be asked to remove shoes, hats and sunglasses ; no food or drink except as permitted by the judge; cameras and recording devices prohibited

A DAY PLAN FOR SOMEONE GOING FROM HERE, AND FIVE RULES

- Do not send a fax. In the court's own words, unsolicited submissions are not docketed and are discarded without review and without notice to the sender. Faxing a time-sensitive document produces the same result as not sending it at all.
- Do not plan to get to another errand the same day. The court is not inside the town and going there and back is a day on its own. We publish no distance figure, because none came from a source.
- Do not take the parking line lightly. Entering a lot charged in half-hour increments is an open-ended cost, because you do not know how long a hearing will last. Bring a means of payment.
- We do not recommend a route. The court states that parking and public transportation are very limited in its area; we do not put a route on top of that sentence.
- If you have no lawyer, assume the hearing will be in person. The agency's own note is that for people with no representative of record the default hearing format is in person in all cases. A remote hearing is a possibility, not a right; the judge decides.

Which court has your case: the answer lines up here, but the rule is the same

- The federal administrative control list ties a case to jurisdiction, not to distance. The list orders which cases a court may control by the federal office that issued the paperwork and by particular detention facilities.
- Here two records point the same way: the relevant line of the list names the federal office in this valley and its sub-offices, along with nearly all detention and correctional facilities in Nevada. So for someone living here the court and the geography generally line up.
- But the list does not say one thing: it does not say that any of those facilities holds a detention contract. The list says where a case is controlled from, and nothing more.
- The rule does not change and it has one sentence: read the notice that is sent to you. That notice names the court and the address. The situation is different in the north of the state and we set out the whole distinction in our Nevada guide.

Agencies whose addresses we do not publish, and why

- USCIS: the agency's pages were closed this round both to direct access and to automated reading, and the archive service was entirely offline. We do not publish an office address from an old archive. What you need to know is the office types: a field office conducts interviews, an application support center takes fingerprints and photographs, and the two are not the same place. You do not choose the support center; which one you attend is stated in your I-797C notice. Appointments are free, Contact Center 1-800-375-5283; intermediary sites that charge for an appointment are scams.
- Assuming the center nearest your mailing address is the most misleading assumption here. The city name on your envelope does not match where you actually live; whichever center the letter names is the one that counts. Do not type the town name into federal search boxes, type your ZIP code. We also could not verify that there is a separate asylum office in this valley.
- Immigration enforcement and the customs agency: no office address, telephone number or name is published. Confirm check-in locations through the agency's own check-in page; if you hold an appointment notice, the address on that notice controls. Detainee information line 1-888-351-4024.
- We could not verify the location and hours of the offices that correct I-94 errors made at entry in this valley; read the list from the agency's own page and write first, then travel, because some of these offices are open only a few hours a week. These offices correct only errors made at the time of entry.
- Social Security Administration: we could not confirm any office in Nevada from an official source this round. Which office serves you is determined by your ZIP code; ssa.gov/locator, general line 1-800-772-1213. Nevada has no unit that issues a number or anything standing in for one.
- Federal tax agency: we could not verify which office in this valley conducts ITIN document review and we publish no address. Confirm the office and the appointment through the agency's office locator, appointment line 844-545-5640.
- Do not confuse the three agencies, and the court says this itself: the immigration agency and the enforcement agency are part of the homeland security department, while the court is a separate body under the justice department. The agency does not answer what you ask the court, and the court does not answer what you ask the agency.

Passports: there is an acceptance facility, but not under your town name

First the distinction: an acceptance facility may be a post office, a county clerk, a library or a university window, and it takes routine or expedited applications and forwards them. A passport agency is for urgent travel and is an entirely different thing. What follows are acceptance facilities only. And there are two warnings in this town. First: the name of this town appears nowhere in the State Department's acceptance facility data file. All 47 Nevada records are written to other postal names, so searching by your own town name returns zero results. That is not a gap but a consequence of the system identifying settlements by postal name; search by your ZIP code. Second: take the hours from the agency rather than the federal data file, because the federal file omits the widest windows in this county.

ITEM	WHAT THE AGENCY'S OWN PAGE STATES
Government center window	500 S Grand Central Pkwy, Las Vegas, NV 89155. By appointment Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.
Marriage license window	201 E Clark Ave, Las Vegas, NV 89101. By appointment: 7 days, 8:15 to 10 a.m. · By appointment: Sunday through Thursday, 3:15 to 7:45 p.m. · Walk-in: 7 days, 8:30 to 10 p.m.
County processing fee	35 dollars ; cash, credit card, check, money order or cashier's check. Checks not made out to the county clerk are not accepted
The federal fee and the cash trap	The federal application fee is paid only by check, money order or cashier's check and payable to the U.S. Department of State ; cash and credit cards are not accepted . So at the same window there are two separate fees, two separate payees and two separate payment rules
What they do not do	No renewals. The agency states on its own page that it receives many calls about renewals, that it does not provide that service, and that renewal runs by mail only
Identification, the most critical line in this section	The agency's own sentence: a regular Nevada license bearing the legend that it is not for federal official use is accepted as primary identification ; against that, the status-neutral driving card is not accepted for a passport application
Appointments	Appointments open up to 15 days ahead . The agency's warning: if no slot appears, do not call, check every day . To cancel, (702) 671-0600
Photographs	Both windows have a photo booth: 14.99 dollars, credit card only , two 2x2 inch photographs. Arrive at least 20 minutes before your appointment. The agency's own warning is that appointments are most often postponed because of an unsuitable photograph
Children	Every child needs their own passport whatever their age and the child must be present ; both parents or guardians are asked to attend. Those aged 16 and 17 may apply alone with their own identification, but the agency still recommends that a parent attend

THE SECOND PROOF OF THE MAIL TRAP SITS IN THE SAME ZIP CODE

- The central branch of the county library district is an acceptance facility too and is recorded in the federal file with the ZIP code Las Vegas, NV 89113. The station carrying your town's own name is in the same ZIP code.
- So both the institution carrying your town's name and one of the nearest passport windows appear in the records as Las Vegas. That does not mean there is no service near you; it means only that it cannot be found under your town name.
- The late-evening walk-in window at the marriage license bureau is the widest passport access we have seen in this series and a real difference for a reader who cannot take a weekday off. But that same window does not do renewals and does not take the federal fee by card.
- Other points in the valley: one library branch's published window is Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 2 to 6 p.m., by appointment only; another branch's federal record carries no note and no link. A window of the Southern Nevada Health District is also an acceptance facility and notes that it provides photocopy service. The university has its own passport office, by appointment, weekdays 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Several post offices are acceptance facilities too.
- We record one conflict: the federal file gives one ZIP code for the government center and the agency's own page gives another. Use the agency's own ZIP code for the agency's own building; we do not resolve the conflict.
- We publish no fee. We could not read federal passport fees from the department's own page; read current amounts from the department's fee page. We do not name the nearest passport agency either: the department's agency list could not be read by any route this round, and we give no name, address, hours or distance figure. Sites that charge for an appointment are scams.

Local cooperation: what it does and what it does not, in the same breath

THE DOCUMENT WE RELY ON IS A MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING, NOT STATUTORY TEXT

- The source warning comes first: state statutory text could not be read by any route this round. The spine of the lines below is a federal memorandum of understanding dated September 26, 2025, signed between the justice department and the governor's office and published on the department's own site. Where it characterizes a statute, that characterization belongs to the parties, not to the statutory text. We print no section number and quote no statute.
- First the local structure: there is no policy question to put to anyone here. The town's advisory board is not a government, its members are appointed, and the board cannot issue licenses, levy fines or take binding decisions. So it is not legally possible for it to adopt a local policy on immigration cooperation. Looking for a local rule here means looking for a county-level decision and a sheriff's agency decision.
- What the document says: on June 4, 2025 the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department rejoined the federal 287(g) program. That same agency provides policing inside the Las Vegas city limits and in all unincorporated areas of the county, which includes here. Because there has never been a city police force here, this item applies here directly. What it does not say: the model and scope of the agreement could not be verified. A 287(g) agreement is not authority to stop people and ask about status, and the scope varies by model; we do not describe the scope.
- Federal funding: the document states that 895,889.60 dollars in federal funding is allocated to this agency for intelligence gathering and information sharing capacity with federal partners, approved on August 8, 2025. Whether the work was completed could not be verified, and a funding allocation says nothing about any individual's case.
- Two senior state officials take opposite positions on the same question: the governor declared the attorney general's model policies non-binding and the attorney general's office rejects that characterization. We print the conflict and take no side. A bill concerning schools was vetoed on June 5, 2025 and did not become law; the veto itself was verified.
- What could not be verified: the federal agency's own participant list could not be read, so we have no current status information from the agency for the department that serves here. We do not say there is none. That a lawsuit was filed against the agreement and is on appeal is known only from news sources; we do not predict the outcome. Sources even conflict on the signing date.
- A structural warning: this agency's answer does not apply to every settlement in the county. Some cities in Clark County did not join the 1973 consolidation and have their own police departments; in the north of the state the agencies are different again. Do not carry the answer here to a neighboring city, and do not carry a neighboring city's answer here.
- Do not use these lines to decide where to live. Choosing a neighborhood or a county on the basis of these lines gains you no outcome and gives you either false confidence or false fear. Ask a lawyer about your own situation. Details in the state law section of our Nevada guide.

Free and low-cost legal help: none in the town, two doors in the valley

ORGANIZATION	WHERE AND HOW	LIMITS
Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada	The main door in the south: 725 E. Charleston Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89104, (702) 386-1070 , (702) 386-1059 for the hearing impaired. Its immigration arm is the Immigration Advocacy Project; published topics include know-your-rights materials, a family preparedness plan, status, law enforcement and detention with bond, schools and employers, parole in place for military families, Violence Against Women Act filings and the crime victim visa	We could not read its eligibility criteria this round. We publish no income limit or status requirement and promise no representation; apply and find out. Its site carried a notice that a street beside the main office was closed for construction
UNLV Immigration Clinic	Based at the law school. The three groups it serves, in the clinic's own words: unaccompanied children in removal proceedings, detained adults in removal proceedings, and certain members of the university community. For the first two groups the line is 702-895-3000 , weekdays 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.	The clinic's own sentences: all of our services are free and we never charge a fee , and immediately beside it, our capacity is limited and we cannot guarantee we can help everyone. This is not a general immigration advice line
For tenant and consumer questions	The Civil Law Self-Help Center, run in partnership with the court in this county, publishes material on deposits, evictions and leases	General information, not representation

Neither is inside this town, and we do not hide that: here, legal help included, institutional services sit elsewhere in the valley. Book an appointment before you go and build the travel into the day. We found no state board, council or program specific to Türkiye, and we found no Turkish association in this town whose activity we could confirm from its own site. We do not say there is none; we say the research did not find one. There is also one door we do not send readers to: on the state's Governor's Office for New Americans, a federal memorandum of understanding states that the office stopped certain legal aid referrals, and the office's own site did not open at all this round, so we could not verify its current status and we do not refer readers there.
