Addresses and phone numbers for immigration, ID, tax, vital records and Türkiye-related offices in one place.

SHORT ANSWER

Most immigration business in Illinois is concentrated in Chicago. The USCIS Chicago Field Office works by appointment only, and we do not print its address or hours here: the address on your appointment notice governs. Biometrics are taken at four Application Support Centers (Burbank, Norridge, Naperville and Waukegan), and your notice names yours. The state's only immigration court is in Chicago at 55 E. Monroe St., Suite 1500; the old address, 525 W. Van Buren, is out of date. An apostille costs $2 per document.
