Johns Creek Official Offices Directory 2026

Immigration, the city, licensing, water, trash, stormwater, passports, vital records, the apostille, schools, health and Türkiye matters, with addresses and phone numbers in one place.

SHORT ANSWER

Johns Creek has no USCIS office, no immigration court, no Turkish consulate, no 311 line, no license office, no vital records counter, no passport acceptance facility and no jail. The city's single number, 678-512-3200, covers all municipal services, and city hall, the police and the municipal court share one address. There is a hospital with a 24-hour emergency department inside the city. The license, tag, assessor and water errands all sit in one building in Alpharetta.

All of them sit with the same Atlanta field office, so whether your mail reads Johns Creek, Suwanee or Duluth, your interview is in the same building. We could not read that table on the live page (USCIS pages return 403 to automated readers) and read it from an Internet Archive capture dated April 25, 2020; it is accurate as published, but we could not confirm that it is current.

TWO COURTS, TWO BUILDINGS

The Ted Turner Drive and W. Peachtree Street courts are in the same city but not the same place, more than two miles apart. Read the address and the suite number on your notice again the day before your hearing; going to the wrong building can mean missing it. The Ted Turner Drive building also holds the ICE ERO office in Suite 522, but going to a hearing and going to an ICE check-in are not the same thing, so read the suite number on your letter. From Johns Creek, downtown parking is a real problem, so the practical route is GA 400 down to North Springs station and MARTA from there; allow two hours for a morning hearing. We are not printing USCIS office hours, because the hours we have come from an archive capture; follow the address, floor and time on your appointment notice.

Passport acceptance facility	None in Johns Creek. The list below comes from the State Department's own acceptance facility data file, not from USPS pages; that file lists no facility at a Johns Creek address and none in ZIP 30022 or 30097.
Webb Bridge Post Office, Alpharetta	4575 Webb Bridge Road, Alpharetta GA 30005 · 770-569-9818 · by appointment. This genuinely is an acceptance facility: the block on its USPS page saying there are no passport services at that location is a template error, because the State Department data file lists it as a facility and gives its local phone number. The two federal sources disagree on the hours (USPS 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., State 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.), so book through the USPS appointment system and read the time there.
Suwanee Post Office	990 Peachtree Industrial Blvd, Suwanee GA 30024 · 678-482-8421 · Monday to Friday 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. (closed 12:30 to 1), Saturday 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. · appointment required

Gwinnett County Public Library, Peachtree Corners branch	5570 Spalding Drive, Peachtree Corners GA 30092 · 770-978-5154 · Monday to Thursday noon to 7 p.m., Friday, Saturday and Sunday noon to 3 p.m. · walk-in, in the order people arrive, and they make the photocopies · being in the neighboring county does not matter for a passport application
Fulton County Clerk, North Service Center	7741 Roswell Rd, Suite 253, Sandy Springs GA 30350 · (404) 613-5313 · weekdays 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. (closed 1 to 2) · the $35 acceptance fee is money order only · the federal data file marks it appointment only while the Clerk's own page says walk-ins are taken as capacity allows with the last at 3:45, so call
Urgent U.S. passport	Passport agency appointments are free: passportappointment.travel.state.gov or 877-487-2778. Take the address and hours from your appointment confirmation, not from third-party listings.
Vital records (birth and death certificates)	No counter in Johns Creek. The nearest is Fulton County Board of Health, Health and Human Services North, 4700 North Point Parkway, Alpharetta GA 30022 · (770) 520-7500 (option 1, then option 4) · $25 including one certified copy, $5 per extra copy · American Express is not accepted · Georgia events only · email FCBOH.vr@dph.ga.gov , fax (770) 264-7514 · two of the agency's pages disagree on the hours, so call. The old address at 3155 Royal Drive is no longer valid.

CUSTODY AND THE 48-HOUR RULE: THE DUTY SITS WITH THE SHERIFF

Johns Creek has its own police department but no jail. The department's own procedures say that people arrested in the city are taken to the Fulton County Sheriff's jail, the Alpharetta annex or the downtown facility, and that the sheriff's office takes the fingerprints and does the medical screening. In Georgia, when a person is confined in a county or municipal jail for any period, however short, a reasonable effort must be made within 48 hours to determine their nationality and whether they are lawfully present (O.C.G.A. 42-4-14); if it cannot be verified from the documents the person is carrying, a query goes to the Law Enforcement Support Center at the Department of Homeland Security. In Johns Creek that is the sheriff's duty rather than the city's, because there is no municipal facility here of the kind the statute also covers. The documents the statute lists are a state driver's license or identification card from the approved list, a Form I-94, a permanent resident card (I-551), a valid Nexus card, a valid Global Entry card, or a valid passport showing that the person is a US citizen, has been issued a visa, or is a citizen of a visa waiver country. Turkey is not in the Visa Waiver Program, so a Turkish passport meets that list only together with a visa record. The statute frames the confinement as being in compliance with Article 36 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, so you can ask that your consulate be notified. What the law does not do: it does not make Johns Creek police ICE officers, it does not require officers to stop anyone to ask about status, and it puts no enforcement duty on schools, libraries or hospitals. If you are taken into custody, ask to speak with an immigration attorney before you discuss your status.
