Passports and ID cards

Passport and Turkish ID card applications are in person and by appointment only. Because the fee schedule is updated periodically, confirm the current fee on the appointment site or by asking the embassy directly.

Students under 25 enrolled in the U.S. can generally have the passport fee waived with a signed enrollment letter, under the general Turkish consular practice; confirm this with the Washington Embassy.

Registering a U.S.-born child (birth registration)

Birth registration can be handled in person, and in some cases by mail. In general you need: the application form, the original birth certificate and a copy (the parents' names must match Turkish records), the parents' IDs, a marriage certificate if applicable, and the multiple-citizenship form. A certified copy of a Virginia-born child's birth certificate can be obtained from the Loudoun County Health Department (1 Harrison Street SE, 2nd floor, Leesburg) for $15, cash or check only; only the person named or an immediate family member may request it. Confirm the current document list and fees with the embassy before applying.

Marriage registration

A marriage performed in the U.S. can be registered with the embassy. Confirm the current document list and fees before you apply. In Loudoun, the marriage license comes from the Circuit Court Clerk (18 E. Market Street, Leesburg) for $30; a certified copy is $2.50, and a "triple seal" copy for an apostille or Great Seal is $5. If a Virginia marriage certificate needs an apostille, it comes from the Secretary of the Commonwealth in Richmond ($10 per document; in-person appointments are released only on Fridays at 10 a.m. for the following week; mail to 1111 East Broad Street, or deliver to 400 East Cary Street, Richmond).

Military service

- Registration (yoklama): men born in 2007, and others without a deferral, must register by December 31, 2026, through the embassy or e-Devlet.
- Paid military service (dövizle askerlik), July 1 to December 31, 2026: the foreign-currency equivalent of 472,653.60 TL, collected in Washington in U.S. dollars at the Central Bank rate of the payment day, plus a cash transfer fee that can vary by embassy, so confirm it when you apply. The total changes on January 1, 2027.
- Requirements: living in the U.S. with residence or work authorization, at least 3 years (1,095 days) of work abroad excluding time in Türkiye, completing the online training at dovizle.msb.gov.tr, and living within the embassy's district (Washington, D.C., Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland). In person, by appointment.
- Dual citizens: those born in the U.S., or who arrived before turning 18, can defer until the end of age 35, after registering their U.S. citizenship with the Turkish civil registry.

Powers of attorney

In person, by appointment, and only at the embassy building. In general you need the application form, your Turkish ID card, and the agent's name, Turkish ID number, and date of birth. Fees vary by subject and length; confirm before you apply.

GETTING THERE FROM LOUDOUN

- The embassy is in Washington, D.C.'s Sheridan-Kalorama neighborhood. You can drive from Loudoun; the Silver Line connects to Metro from Ashburn and Loudoun Gateway, but check wmata.com directly for current routing and transfers. No travel time is given here.
- Services run only during specific hours. Leave early and allow for traffic so you do not miss your appointment.
- If you fly to Türkiye, Turkish Airlines operates nonstop service from Dulles (IAD) to Istanbul; confirm the current schedule with the airline.

NOT THE SAME AS U.S. IMMIGRATION

The consular section handles Turkish matters. U.S. visas, green cards, and naturalization are handled by USCIS and the U.S. Department of State. If a green card application is pending, check your advance parole status before traveling to Türkiye.
