Passports and ID cards

Passport and Turkish ID card applications are in person and by appointment only; there is no mail-in passport application. Because the fee schedule is updated periodically, confirm the current fee on the appointment site or by asking the consulate directly.

Students under 25 enrolled in the U.S. can generally have the passport fee waived with a signed enrollment letter, under the general Turkish consular practice; confirm this with the Miami Consulate General.

Registering a U.S.-born child (birth registration)

Birth registration can be handled in person, and in some cases by mail. In general you need: the application form, the original birth certificate and a copy (the parents' names must match Turkish records), the parents' IDs, a marriage certificate if applicable, and the multiple-citizenship form. A child born in Miami-Dade can get a birth certificate from the Florida Department of Health in Miami-Dade County: Downtown, West Perrine and North Dade (18680 NW 67th Ave, Hialeah) offices, weekdays 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., no appointment; main line 305-324-2400. You can also order through VitalChek online or by mail. Confirm the current document list and fees with the consulate before applying.

Marriage registration

A marriage performed in the U.S. can be registered with the consulate. Confirm the current document list and fees before you apply. In Miami-Dade, marriage licenses are issued by the Marriage License Bureau (601 NW 1 Court, Suite 1900, Miami, (305) 275-1155; $86, or $61 with an approved course). A Florida marriage certificate that needs an apostille is handled through the state's centralized apostille office in Tallahassee ($10 per document, check or money order only).
