

GUIDE · MISSOURI

Missouri Official Offices Directory 2026

The immigration court, the I-94 correction desk, passport acceptance facilities and a marriage license that changes with the county. Why federal street addresses are not here.

SHORT ANSWER

This guide prints no USCIS, ICE, CBP or SSA street address, and that is a rule rather than an omission: we do not publish a federal address that does not come from a current official page we were able to read. The address that counts is the one on your appointment notice. There are verified addresses here too: the state has exactly one immigration court and the neighboring state has none at all, so its cases come here. And two neighboring counties require different documents for a marriage license; find your county first.

Federal addresses: why they are not here

ITEM	STATUS
That Missouri has USCIS field offices	Kansas City, Missouri and St. Louis. The existence of both was confirmed from the agency's own page structure
Field office street addresses	Not published. The USCIS site returned access denied to every request in this research and the archived capture hit a rate limit on every attempt
The biometrics center address	Not published. Same reason
Office hours	Not published. There is no capture we were able to read
The address that counts	The one on your appointment notice. Both the interview notice and the biometrics notice (Form I-797C) print the date, the time and the exact address
Walk-ins	None. Field offices do not accept walk-in visits
Official office locator	my.uscis.gov/findanoffice , with your own ZIP code
How appointments are made	USCIS Contact Center, 800-375-5283. Say at the start of the call that you would like a Turkish interpreter
Social Security Administration offices	No street address published. Find the office that serves your address through the agency's own locator with your ZIP code

The state has two field offices and they are at opposite ends of it; Kansas City, Missouri to St. Louis is not a one-day errand. And here is the most expensive line for this reader: if you live in the city of the same name in the neighboring state, do not assume the Missouri office. USCIS offices divide by ZIP code and this research could not determine which office serves the county on the other side; we do not write "it belongs to office X", because we do not know. Your notice decides. If you are entering a federal building, bring photo identification, expect a security screening, and arrive at least half an hour before your appointment.

The immigration court: one address, both sides of the line

ITEM	DETAIL
Court	Kansas City Immigration Court , 2345 Grand Boulevard, Suite 525, Kansas City, MO 64108
Telephone	816-581-5000
Public hours and window filing	8 a.m. to 4 p.m. , Monday through Friday, excluding federal holidays
General correspondence	KansasCity.Immigration.Court@usdoj.gov
Fax and electronic filing	Not accepted unless court staff specifically request it. In the court's own words, unauthorized submissions are not docketed and are discarded without notice to the sender . A document faxed in good faith simply disappears
The asylum clock	A separate mailbox: Asylum.Clock.Kansas.City@usdoj.gov. It must state the applicant's name, the alien registration number and why the clock needs correcting; that mailbox answers no other question
Security	Screening is on the 5th floor ; a metal detector and bag search at every visit, shoes may have to come off, no food or drink, no cameras or recording devices. In the court's words proper identification is required
Parking	A paid garage in the building, plus limited metered spaces within a block
Hearings are open to the public	And the court's own sentence: you do not need to notify the court in advance of your visit . A real opportunity for a family member who wants to see the courtroom before their own hearing date
The neighboring state has no court at all	The Justice Department's state-by-state court index runs Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska and never lists the neighboring state, so cases from both sides of the line come to this address . A reader on the other side loses a day hunting for a courthouse in the wrong city
Source and what we leave out	These lines were read directly from the Justice Department court page and the page carries an October 5, 2026 update date. The court publishes an internet hearing link for each judge, but the link for your case comes from your hearing notice ; this guide prints no judge-specific link and no staff names, because the roster changes

Address reporting: two deadlines, two forms

WHERE	DEADLINE	HOW
USCIS, Form AR-11	10 days	Through your online USCIS account. If you are subject to the reporting duty this is an obligation, not a choice

WHERE	DEADLINE	HOW
Every pending application	As soon as possible	Separately , by receipt number. AR-11 does not do it for you, and that is why people miss their notices
A pending case in immigration court	5 days	On the court's own form, not the USCIS form. A court notice going to your old address can end in being treated as absent and a decision in your absence

The I-94 correction desk: at the airport, four hours a day

ITEM	DETAIL
Location	Kansas City International Airport, not downtown
Hours	Noon to 4 p.m., weekdays. Four hours a day; arriving at ten in the morning is a wasted trip
And a conflict, which we are printing: the agency's own site publishes two different telephone numbers	The deferred inspection page says (816) 760-6100 , the port's own page says 816-780-6100. We could not resolve which is correct in this research ; try both and verify before you go
Another conflict between the same pages	The port's own page says 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., seven days a week , but that is the hours of port inspection activity, not of the I-94 desk. The port page was last updated in November 2025, making it the weaker of the two sources
I-94 email	kansascityi94@cbp.dhs.gov
A second desk at the other end of the state	Its window is 8 a.m. to noon, weekdays , the exact mirror of the flagship city's afternoon. Trying the wrong hour in the wrong city means two trips
We found no desk in the neighboring state	So someone on the other side of the line with an error on their I-94 also crosses to the airport on the Missouri side . We write "we found none", not "there is none"

ICE: one field office, both sides of the line

- For ICE enforcement and removal operations Missouri falls under the Chicago field office, and the area of responsibility the agency publishes includes the neighboring state. So, like the consulate and the immigration court, one office covers both sides of the line.
- This guide publishes no ICE street address. If you have a regular reporting obligation, your point of contact is the office named in the reporting instructions you hold; keep that document. The field office telephone is (872) 351-3990.
- We could not determine whether there is a sub-office in Missouri. We do not write "there is none"; the archived capture was paginated and the state filter could not be run.
- Pull your I-94 arrival record from cbp.dhs.gov and print it. Your period of stay is not the visa validity in your passport, it is the date on the I-94; confusing the two is among the most frequent mistakes we see in this series. If a name, date of birth or status is recorded wrongly, have it corrected early: for a license application Missouri asks for proof of the Date of Lawful Status, and this document does exactly that job.

Passport acceptance facilities: 207 in the state, 64 in the flagship metro

Martin City Station post office	10 E 135th Street, Kansas City, MO 64145	816-412- 7751	Mon to Sat 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Sat noon to 4 p.m. The widest hours we found in the city

The list was taken from the State Department's own acceptance facility data file on October 6, 2026; the file holds 7,480 facilities nationwide. Reliability is high for name and telephone, while the hours field can drift. There are two practical lessons in the table: a midday closure is the rule in this city (four of seven facilities close in the middle of the day and one closes for two and a half hours), and two library branches are by appointment only in the federal file. And a conflict, which we are printing: look at the first two rows. There are two separate acceptance facility records at 601 E 12th Street, the federal data file gives them two different telephone numbers, and the second number carries the neighboring state's area code (913 is a Kansas area code) although the address is in Missouri; on top of that the two records publish different hours. We do not resolve this quietly: before you go, call the number with the Missouri area code, and if nobody answers try the other one. In the suburbs the options multiply and library branches are a real advantage, with evening hours until 9 p.m. on some days; in Independence there is the Kansas City Public Library Trails West branch, 11401 E 23rd St S, and there are facilities in Blue Springs, Lee's Summit, Liberty, Platte City, Gladstone, Parkville, Raytown and Grandview, but we did not extract addresses, telephones and hours for those suburban facilities in this research. Find the nearest one with your ZIP code through the acceptance facility locator. Finally: there is no passport agency in Missouri and none in the neighboring state, the nearest being Chicago, Minneapolis, Dallas, Colorado and Houston, and an agency is not a way to skip the queue: it serves by appointment only, and only customers with urgent international travel within the next 14 calendar days or a need for a foreign visa within 28 days. The answer is to apply early.

The marriage license: two counties in one metro, two sets of rules

COUNTY	WHAT IS REQUIRED
Jackson County	A foreign passport is named on the accepted identification list. The county's list: a driver license, a Missouri or other state identification, a US passport, a Foreign Passport , a military identification, and every document must be unexpired. The page never mentions a Social Security number. The fee is $52 , with a 2.75 percent bank fee on card payments. The office is not in downtown Kansas City, Missouri: 112 W. Lexington, Suite 30, Independence, MO 64050, 816-881-4483 , weekdays 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The county courthouse downtown does not issue licenses
Clay County	A Social Security number is required and all documents must be in English. The county's sentence: you must provide us with your Social Security number, however no documentation is required; so you must state the number but need not show the card. It publishes no alternative for an applicant who has no number at all and the research could not find the answer to that question. The page does not say whether a foreign passport counts, and a Turkish-language document does not meet an English requirement: call and ask what is wanted in the way of a certified translation. The fee is $53.00 , cash or credit card only. Administrative Building, 1 Courthouse Sq., Liberty, MO 64068, weekdays 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., the counter closes an hour before the building

FOUR THINGS TO NOTE

- We do not flatten the fee conflict: a $2 increase to recording and marriage license fees across Missouri is reported to have taken effect on August 28, 2026, which would put every county at $53; Clay County publishes $53 and Jackson County publishes $52. The statute itself could not be read. Take $53 in cash.
- We could not read the marriage license rules and fees for Platte and Cass counties in this round, and both are inside the Kansas City, Missouri limits. If your address is there, verify with your county's own page. In both counties the license is valid 30 days and both of you must attend; the minimum age is 18.
- The research found no published Missouri waiting period, and we write that as a finding rather than a denial, because the state code site could not be reached. For the same reason we say nothing about blood tests or premarital testing rules.
- Cross the line and the system changes entirely: in Kansas the license comes from a district court clerk or a judge, a three-day waiting period is written into the statute, the license is valid six months, and the fee is reported as $85.50. On the Missouri side you get it the same day and have 30 days. Two cities with the same name, twenty minutes apart.
- If a Notice to Appear reaches you, the first thing to do is read the court name, the date and the time on it, and the second is to talk to an immigration attorney. Missing a hearing leads to a decision in your absence, and reopening that is far harder than attending.
