Official Offices in Nevada: USCIS, Court and Passports 2026

We publish no federal street address. There is one immigration court and its window runs continuously, while the records for the north point in two directions.

SHORT ANSWER

This guide deliberately omits some addresses and we say why plainly: the USCIS, ICE, CBP and Social Security pages were closed to automated access this round, the archive service was offline, and publishing a federal address out of an old archive is precisely the mistake that sends people on wasted journeys. The only accurate sentence is this: the address you go to is the address on your appointment notice. The court side is clear: Nevada has one immigration court and its window runs in a single continuous block, 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.; some courts in this series split the day into three, so do not carry that warning here. And the most expensive mistake up front: the court does not make faxes and electronic submissions part of the record unless it asked for them, and discards them without notice to the sender.

WHICH FEDERAL ADDRESS IS IN THIS GUIDE AND WHICH IS NOT

- No USCIS field office or biometrics center address. Do not confuse two sentences: we publish no address and there is no office are not the same thing. The address is on your appointment notice and in the agency's office locator.
- Two offices, two jobs: green card and citizenship interviews happen at field offices, fingerprint and photograph appointments at application support centers. Confusing the two costs a day.
- No address for Social Security. We could not confirm a single Nevada office from an official source this round. Find out which office covers you by ZIP code at ssa.gov/locator. The national line is 1-800-772-1213; ask for a Turkish interpreter and say so at the start of the call.
- No address for ICE or CBP either. If you have a reporting obligation, confirm reporting locations on the agency's own check-in page. The detention information line is 1-888-351-4024; speak to your attorney before you go.
- For readers in the north a question stays open and we do not close it: whether someone living in the northern county has their biometrics appointment in Nevada or across the state line we could not verify, because the agency's jurisdiction pages did not open. And this is not a formality: as you will see below, a federal list ties the northern records to a court in another state.
- If you live in an unincorporated place, do not assume either that the center on your notice is the one nearest your mailing address. Whichever center the letter names is the one.
- We could not verify that Nevada has a separate asylum office. Form I-589 is not handed in at an asylum office; it is sent by the route the agency sets. We also could not verify the location and hours of the office that corrects entry errors; read the list on the agency's own page and write it down before you set off.
- No walk-in service, and appointments are free. Field offices do not take walk-in visitors; appointments run through the Contact Center, line 1-800-375-5283. Sites charging for an appointment are scams. You do not choose your biometrics center either: the I-797C notice names it.

The immigration court: one of them, and one window

ITEM	DETAIL
Court	The only immigration court in Nevada, in Las Vegas
Address	110 North City Parkway, Suite 400, Las Vegas, NV 89106
Telephone	702-458-0227
Open	Monday to Friday, closed on federal holidays; it may close unexpectedly for severe weather or another emergency
Public and window hours	7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., one continuous window
General e-mail	LasVegas.Immigration.Court@usdoj.gov
Asylum work permit clock requests	Asylum.Clock.Las.Vegas@usdoj.gov . Include the name, the alien registration number and why the clock should be adjusted; the court states this mailbox is only for these requests

ITEM	DETAIL
Faxes and electronic submissions	Not accepted unless court staff or the judge asked for them. In the court's own words, unauthorized transmissions are not made part of the record and are discarded without consideration of the document or notice to the sender
Parking and transit	The court's own text: a privately owned garage nearby charges $3.00 per half hour and a delicatessen in front of it offers one hour of validation . The rest matters: parking and public transportation are very limited in this area
Building access	A guard escorts visitors to the fourth-floor courtroom lobby, and visitors check in at the fourth-floor guard station . All electronic devices must be switched off before entering the lobby
Security	Magnetometer and bag screening at every visit; shoes, hats and sunglasses may have to be removed ; no food or drink except as the judge permits; cameras and recording devices prohibited
Hearings	Open to the public, and in the court's own words you do not need to notify the court in advance of your visit

WHICH COURT: THE QUESTION GEOGRAPHY CANNOT ANSWER

- The federal administrative control list ties a case to jurisdiction, not to distance. It lists what cases a court may hear by the federal office that issued the paperwork and by particular detention facilities; it sits on the agency's own page.
- The southern court's row names the federal office in the south and its sub-offices together with nearly all detention and correctional facilities in Nevada, among them the detention center in the second southern city and the county jail in the north.
- Against that, the records of the federal office in the north and of the northern remote site appear in the row of a court in another state. So for someone living in the north two records point in two directions: one by the office that issued the paperwork, the other by the detention facility.
- This is not a conflict, but it cannot be worked out from geography. The list's own wording is may have jurisdiction and the two columns describe two different things. We do not say that a Nevada resident's hearing will be held in another state. What we say is this: read the notice you were sent; it names the court and the address.
- We publish no distance figure, because none came from a source this round.
- An internet-based hearing is a possibility, not a right. The agency publishes a link and a telephone access code for each judge, but its own note says that for people without a representative of record the default hearing format is in person in all events. So a reader without an attorney should expect to attend in person.
- Checking online: your A number is enough at acis.eoir.justice.gov, or call 1-800-898-7180. The official information is still the hearing notice. Check closures on the morning of a hearing at the agency's operational status page.
- One distinction, because it is constantly confused: the court belongs to the justice department while the immigration and customs agencies belong to the homeland security department. The court says this itself and points readers to three separate locators.

State law: Nevada's own shape, neither promise nor threat

A SOURCE WARNING, BECAUSE IT BELONGS AT THE TOP OF THIS SECTION

- The state statutory text could not be read by any route this round. The legislature's own site blocked every attempt, mirrors returned nothing, and the archive service was offline. We cite section numbers only as the agencies themselves cite them, quote no statutory text and derive no numbers.
- The backbone of what follows is a federal document: a memorandum of understanding dated 26 September 2025 between the justice department and the governor's office, published on the department's own site. It was read with two separate text extraction methods and the two readings agreed on every figure.
- And we state what the document is: a text in which a federal agency and the governor's office record their own commitments and assertions. Where it characterizes a statute, that characterization is the parties' characterization, not the statute's own text.
- This guide uses no label for Nevada. Read none of the lines below as protection or as threat; this section does not tell you what will happen, it tells you what the documents say.

ITEM	WHAT THE DOCUMENT SAYS	WHAT IT DOES NOT SAY
State statute	Two sections place on the Attorney General a duty to publish model policies on how public officers interact with federal immigration authorities	It does not say it orders local agencies to do anything. We could not read the statutory text , so this characterization is the document's
Model policies	The Attorney General's model policies were published on 24 February 2025 . The document characterizes them as non-binding	The Attorney General's office rejects that characterization . We could not read the policies themselves and we take no side
Law enforcement in the south	It records that on 4 June 2025 the large southern police department rejoined the federal 287(g) program	The model and scope of the agreement could not be verified . A 287(g) agreement is not authority to stop people and ask about status; we do not describe its scope
The sheriff's office in the north	The document mentions a policy review with the northern sheriff's office in two places	It does not say there is a 287(g) agreement for the north . And that absence is not a protection: the same document says of the northern county jail that the jail already works with the federal agency
Federal funding	Two figures: $895,889.60 for the southern department, and $430,000 to build a holding cell and office space for the federal agency at the northern county jail. Approved 8 August 2025	Whether the work was completed could not be verified . And a funding allocation says nothing about any individual's case
A bill about schools	Vetoed on 5 June 2025 . The bill would have barred federal immigration officers from school grounds without a court order and barred the sharing of student information	It did not become law . Do not read it as a state rule for schools; the veto itself was verified

A federal list	Read on 10 October 2026, the list published by the justice department does not include Nevada , nor any Nevada county or city	This is not a guarantee. The department's own page says the list will be reviewed regularly
The document's own terms	It takes effect on signature, continues until terminated , and either party may end it on 30 days' written notice	The document expressly creates no right or benefit enforceable by anyone

- The federal agency's own participant list could not be read. So we have no current information from the agency for any Nevada county or city. We do not say there is none; we say we could not verify, and those two are not the same thing.
- A structural warning: the large southern department's answer does not apply to the second southern city, because that city did not join the 1973 consolidation and has its own police department. In the north there was no consolidation at all; there the city police and the county sheriff are two separate agencies. The law enforcement map splits three ways and carrying one answer to another is wrong.
- A lawsuit against the southern agreement is reported to have been filed and to be on appeal. We know this only from news sources; we do not predict the outcome and we do not describe what the agreement authorizes on the strength of one party's filing.
- Do not use this section to decide where to live. Choosing a county on the strength of these lines gains you nothing and gives you either false confidence or false fear. Ask an attorney about your own situation.
- If you are detained, ask to speak to an attorney before saying anything about your status, and if you are a Turkish citizen ask that the consulate be notified.
- There is one door we do not send readers to, and we say why plainly: the state has a unit called the Governor's Office for New Americans, and the same federal document states that this office stopped its legal help referrals on certain immigration matters. The existence of the office is not in doubt; what is in doubt is which services it provides today: its own site did not open at all this round and we could not verify its current position. So we do not refer readers there for immigration paperwork; the place to go is an attorney or the organizations named above.

FREE AND LOW-COST LEGAL HELP: TWO DOORS IN THE SOUTH, AN ACCESS GAP IN THE NORTH

- The main door in the south is the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada: 725 E. Charleston Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89104, (702) 386-1070, and (702) 386-1059 for the hearing impaired. Its immigration arm publishes material on know-your-rights, family preparedness planning, law enforcement and detention and bond, schools and employers, applications under the violence against women act and the crime victim visa; lacsnsn.org.
- But in the same breath as the word free: we could not read the organization's eligibility criteria this round. We publish no income limit or status requirement and we promise no representation. The honest instruction is: apply and find out.
- The second door is the UNLV Immigration Clinic, inside a law school, and it is narrow but genuinely different. In the clinic's own words it serves three groups: unaccompanied children in removal proceedings, detained adults in removal proceedings, and certain members of the university community. Its own sentences: all our services are free of charge, and immediately beside it, our capacity is limited and we cannot guarantee that we can help everyone. The line for the first two groups is 702-895-3000, weekdays 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. This is not a general immigration advice line.
- We name no provider in the north, and the reason is not a finding about the north. The sites of two organizations thought to serve the north did not connect at all this round and the archive was offline. This is an access failure. Do not read it as there being no free legal help in the north; start your search with the state bar's own lawyer referral service.
- There is also something free the court itself provides: the agency publishes self-help materials and an online court resource explaining what happens at a hearing and how to prepare. That is general information, not representation.
- We found no state board, council or program specific to Türkiye, and no Nevada-based Turkish association whose activity we could verify from its own site. We do not say none exists; we say the research did not find one.

The police work card: the counters, and three cards that moved

If the job you will take requires a police-issued card, the counter you go to is a law enforcement office, not a professional board. In the south the card is issued by the county's consolidated police department and the colloquial name for it appears in the department's own question-and-answer page; in the north the sheriff's office issues it, with separate permits by type of work, all by appointment only. In the north only three documents are listed as accepted identification: a valid license, a state-issued identification card, and a current U.S. passport; the shortness of that list does not mean there is no work authorization requirement in the north, it means the two agencies publish different lists. We could not verify the procedure in the second southern city; law enforcement there is a separate department, so do not assume the southern answer applies.

CARD	WHICH AGENCY ISSUES IT NOW	WHAT REMAINS WITH THE POLICE
Gaming employee card	The Nevada Gaming Control Board . The police department has not processed these since 1 July 2004	Electronic fingerprint submission only, $75.25

CARD	WHICH AGENCY ISSUES IT NOW	WHAT REMAINS WITH THE POLICE
Private security officer and private investigator card	The Nevada Private Investigators Licensing Board , (702) 486-3003	Electronic fingerprint submission only, $58.00
Child care work card	The state health agency's child care licensing unit, (702) 486-3822. It changed in the north too: the sheriff's office has not issued child care permits since 3 January 2022	None

This table saves a day directly: old information circulating online still sends people to the police, yet all three cards moved to other agencies. At large events applications are not accepted from individuals, they go through a registered employer. And to repeat the sequence: you cannot get the card before a job offer and the employer signs the application.

U.S. passport: 47 acceptance facilities, but take the hours from the agency

- An acceptance facility and an agency are two different things. An acceptance facility may be a post office, a county clerk, a library or a city clerk and takes a routine or expedited application and sends it on. A passport agency is for urgent travel and is something else entirely. Everything below is an acceptance facility only.
- The most useful sentence in this section: take the hours from the agency, not from the federal data file. The marriage license counter run by the Clark County Clerk in the south operates in windows that do not appear in the federal file at all: by appointment, seven days a week, 8:15 to 10 a.m.; by appointment, Sunday to Thursday, 3:15 to 7:45 p.m.; and walk-in, seven days a week, 8:30 to 10 p.m. The same office's government center counter works Monday to Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. by appointment.
- At one counter there are two fees, two payees and two payment rules. The county execution fee is $35 and takes cash, card, check, money order or cashier's check; the federal application fee is paid only by check, money order or cashier's check and cash and credit cards are not accepted. We publish no federal fee figure, we could not read it from the agency's own page this round; read current figures from the department's fee page.
- And the critical line in this section is an identification line: the agency's own words say a standard license bearing the notation that it is not for federal official use is acceptable as primary identification, while a driver authorization card is not acceptable for a passport application.
- Renewals are not done at these counters. The agency writes on its own page that it receives many calls about this and that renewals go by post only; routine and expedited applications run through the national passport center.
- Other facilities: in the second southern city the Henderson City Clerk has its own counter at 240 S Water Street, (702) 267-1400, with a published window of 8:30 to 11 a.m., and it does not take cash. Library branches in the valley are acceptance facilities too and some work by appointment only; one record's opening-hours field is visibly corrupt, so do not set off on the strength of that line. In the north the Washoe County Clerk sits at 1001 E. 9th Street, Bldg A, Reno, NV 89512, (775) 328-2003, and its own note in the federal data reads by appointment only on Saturday and Sunday; a real difference for a reader who cannot take a weekday off.

- For readers in unincorporated places this section has a trap: your own town's name does not appear in the federal data at all. All the records are listed under incorporated-city or census-place mailing names, and searching for your own town's name finds nothing. Search for the big city's name, or search by ZIP code.
- Appointments and photographs: appointments are released up to 15 days in advance and the agency's advice is to check daily if nothing is available; cancellations on (702) 671-0600. Both counters have a photo booth at $14.99, credit card only, and you are asked to arrive at least 20 minutes early. The agency's own warning is that an unacceptable photograph is the most common reason appointments are rescheduled.
- We do not name a nearest passport agency. The department's agency list could not be read by any route this round; we give no name, address, hours or distance. But one warning needs no source: do not pay any site that charges for a passport appointment.

VOTER REGISTRATION AND JURY DUTY: ONE IS CERTAIN, ON THE OTHER WE SAY WE DO NOT KNOW

- On voter registration the rule is clear: registration and voting belong to U.S. citizens only, and green card holders cannot register. Registering or voting without citizenship is a direct problem before the officer assessing eligibility and good moral character; the uscis.gov policy manual treats this in a separate chapter.
- Read the form at the counter. Where a license, identification card or public service application contains a voter registration section, signing that section counts in most states as a sworn statement that you are a citizen. We could not verify from an official source how a Nevada license application is linked to voter registration, and that is exactly why: read every section, do not sign a section you do not understand, and do not answer yes to a citizenship question if you are not a citizen.
- Do not fill in voter registration forms handed to you door to door or at events, even if a campaign worker says it will not be a problem.
- One distinction, because it is often confused here: some local decisions are made at the ballot box and go into the sales tax rate you pay at the register. But a ballot measure affecting you does not give you a vote.
- On jury duty we say we do not know: we could not verify which public records Nevada builds its jury master list from, so we do not know whether license records feed into it. We also could not read the text on juror qualifications, so we write neither that you are qualified nor that you are not.
- What to do if a summons arrives: do not ignore it and do not throw it away. Call the jury office of the court named on the letter as soon as possible, or respond online, and state that you do not meet the qualifications. The process varies by county, so use the number on your letter rather than a general one. A summons is not a mistake and does not mean anything has been started against you.
- If you were registered to vote somewhere by mistake, speak to an immigration attorney before answering a citizenship question on any official form.
