Puyallup Official Offices Directory 2026 (Pierce County)

Addresses and phone numbers for immigration, licensing, tax, city services, schools, health and Türkiye matters in one place, all with Pierce County agencies.

SHORT ANSWER

Puyallup has its own SSA office (811 South Hill Park Dr, Suite A), two vehicle licensing agencies and its own city library. What it does not have is a driver licensing office, a USCIS office, an IRS office or a passport acceptance counter. And most important of all: Puyallup is in Pierce County, so the marriage license, the birth certificate, the property tax and passports all run through Pierce County agencies in Tacoma. King County addresses do not apply here.

KING COUNTY ADDRESSES WILL NOT HELP YOU IN PUYALLUP

This is the most expensive confusion in the Washington guides. Puyallup is in Pierce County: the marriage license is $172 rather than $169 and it is in Tacoma, not Seattle; the birth certificate comes from the Tacoma-Pierce County Health Department rather than King County Vital Statistics; the property tax goes to the Pierce County Assessor-Treasurer rather than King County Treasury; passports go through the Pierce County Auditor rather than King County District Court; housing assistance comes from Pierce County Housing Authority rather than King County Housing Authority. A jury summons also comes from a Pierce County court or from Puyallup Municipal Court.

TWO SEPARATE COUNTERS IN TACOMA: ONE BUILDING WILL NOT DO

The marriage license is at 2401 S 35th St, Room 200; birth and death certificates are at 3629 S D St. In King County those two errands finish in one building; in Pierce County they do not. Vehicle registration, property tax and U.S. passports are also at 2401 S 35th St, so put everything for that address on one list and plan the vital records trip separately. The marriage counter wants an appointment; the vital records counter is walk-in. On transit, the Sounder train runs between Puyallup Station and Tacoma Dome ($3.50 one way, about 20 minutes) and Pierce Transit Route 400 also runs between the two cities, but the sources we read give no connection from Tacoma Dome Station to 2401 S 35th St; plan that last leg yourself.

The nearer court is not necessarily your court. Tacoma is only 8 miles from Puyallup, but it sits inside the Northwest ICE Processing Center and hears the cases of people detained there. For someone living in Puyallup who is not detained, the hearing is normally in Seattle or by video. The rule is simple: go to whichever court your hearing notice names. If you do go to Tacoma, EOIR says there is no transit near the facility; the nearest stop, Tacoma Dome Station, is about a mile away. Everyone entering passes through a metal detector, food, drink and cameras are not allowed in, and the court is open weekdays 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. with window filing until 4 p.m.

Clinics: which are free and which charge by income?

ORGANIZATION	ADDRESS · PHONE · COST
Community Health Care, Puyallup Health Center (sliding fee)	201 West Main, Puyallup WA 98371, parking garage at 109 West Main · clinic (253) 268-1170 · appointments: medical (253) 722-2161, dental (253) 722-2151 · insurance enrollment (253) 722-2154 · billing (253) 722-1598 · after-hours nurse line (253) 922-4778 · medical weekdays 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., closed for lunch, closing at noon on the second Wednesday of the month (those hours may come from an older version of the page) · a $45 minimal fee or deposit at a first visit , plus photo ID, a Social Security card or birth certificate, and income for the last 30 days · the pages say nothing about immigration status
Sea Mar Community Health Centers, South Hill (sliding fee)	Medical: 10217 125th St. Ct. E., Puyallup WA 98374, 253-864-4550 · dental: same address, 253-864-4760 (whether adults are seen at this site is not clear from the page , so ask) · behavioral health: 12812 101st Avenue Court E, #202, 253-864-4770 · weekdays 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. (the page carries a 2016 copyright, so confirm) · discounts by household size and annual income, with a payment asked for at the time of visit; we did not read the tiers of the 2026 table, so we print no figure · the only sliding-fee clinic here that states on its own page that it does not look at status
Neighborhood Clinic (evening clinic, Tacoma)	1323 S Yakima Ave, Tacoma · info@neighborhoodclinetacoma.org · we are not printing a phone number : the one in circulation appears only in third-party listings · Monday and Thursday evenings, with sign-in listed as 5 to 7 p.m. on one page and 5 to 8 p.m. on another, so confirm before you travel · its own pages say there is no charge for a consultation, lab work and a one-time prescription fill · a clinic for an acute complaint, not for chronic disease follow-up
Children's vaccines (ages 0 to 18)	Free at Washington providers and pharmacies in the Vaccines for Children program; some may charge an administration fee, but the county department says "you won't be turned away if you can't pay" · the venues of its free vaccine events change, so get the address from the immunization page

Keep three things apart. Hospital financial assistance is a bill reduction, not a clinic; apply before you pay. A sliding fee means the price comes down, not that care is free: Community Health Care and Sea Mar are in that group. We use the word free only where an organization's own page says so, and inside the Puyallup city limits we could not verify a general clinic that describes its regular care as free; that is not the same as saying none exists, only that it was not verified on an organization's own page. Puyallup Tribal Health Authority clinics serve tribal members and other eligible people, so they are not a general option for a new arrival. The county's resource page also links to Pierce County Project Access, which is not a clinic but a referral program whose eligibility rules we did not read. One more thing, on language: none of the clinic pages we read promises a Turkish interpreter, so when you book, ask whether one is available and whether you have to request it in advance.
