Redmond Official Offices Directory 2026

Addresses and phone numbers for immigration, licensing, tax, city services, schools, health and Türkiye matters in one place, including which errands the Eastside does not have.

SHORT ANSWER

Redmond has its own driver licensing office (7225 170th Ave NE) and a U.S. passport acceptance counter (King County District Court, 8601 160th Ave NE). What the Eastside does not have is a vehicle licensing agency, a Social Security office or an IRS office that reviews ITIN documents. USCIS biometrics happen in Tukwila, the immigration court, the marriage license and the birth certificate are in Seattle, and the Turkish consulate is in Los Angeles.

Do not confuse the two: Redmond has no municipal court of its own; its court services come from the King County District Court Redmond courthouse (8601 160th Ave NE, 206-205-9200). That is a state court handling traffic citations and misdemeanors and has nothing to do with an immigration case. The Seattle Immigration Court moved to 915 2nd Ave in the summer of 2020, though some sites still show 1000 Second Avenue. The same building, the Henry M. Jackson Federal Building, also houses the IRS office that reviews ITIN documents and an SSA office.

THE CITY'S OWN IMMIGRATION PAGE

Redmond links from a banner on every page of its site to its Immigration Resources page. The city council adopted an updated Welcoming Resolution on March 17, 2026, and the page says plainly that Redmond Police and other city employees do not enforce federal civil immigration law. The city also states that it complies with the state Keep Washington Working Act. By the city's own figure, more than 44% of Redmond residents were born outside the United States. King County says on its own page that county resources are not used to support federal civil immigration enforcement (King County Code 2.15) and that an executive order dated February 12, 2026 set aside a $2 million emergency fund for people affected by enforcement. None of this is legal advice, but it is useful to know when you contact the city.

Overlake's own financial assistance policy, effective April 1, 2025: for patients with household income at or below 300% of the federal poverty level the entire patient balance is written off; from 301 to 350% there is an 80% discount and from 351 to 400% a 75% discount. Assets are not counted, and the policy says explicitly that assistance is given regardless of race, national origin or immigration status; a decision is good for 6 months. EvergreenHealth offers sliding-scale assistance, but we could not confirm its percentages, so ask the hospital for the text of its own policy before you apply. Every hospital has its own policy, so do not generalize.
