SHORT ANSWER

Green card and citizenship processing for San Jose runs through the USCIS "San Jose Field Office," which is physically in Santa Clara, not San Jose (1450 Coleman Ave.). Biometrics appointments are inside San Jose, at the support center at 5675 Snell Avenue. San Jose has no immigration court of its own, and the San Francisco Immigration Court permanently closed on September 4, 2026. Your hearing notice tells you which court and address apply; for questions, the Concord Immigration Court (1855 Gateway Blvd., 925-680-9015) is the number to call. There is no Turkish consulate in San Jose; the Turkish Consulate General in Los Angeles (Beverly Hills) serves the area. USCIS offices do not accept walk-ins; always go to the address on your notice.

San Jose has no immigration court of its own, and the San Francisco Immigration Court is closed. The Montgomery Street court permanently closed at the end of business on September 4, 2026. Your hearing notice states which court and address apply to your case; we did not find an official list assigning Santa Clara County cases to a court, so the address on your notice controls. If a notice still says "San Francisco Immigration Court," or you are unsure where your hearing is, ask an attorney right away or call the Concord court; hearings can also be held remotely. Missing a hearing can lead to an in absentia removal order.
