SHORT ANSWER

Virginia has two USCIS field offices: the Washington Field Office (despite its name, in Fairfax) for Northern Virginia, and the Norfolk Field Office for the Hampton Roads area. Biometrics appointments happen at the Alexandria center. Northern Virginia is served by the Annandale and Sterling immigration courts, and EOIR also has a center in Richmond. Apostilles come from the Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth in Richmond. Turkish citizens are served by the consular section of the Embassy in Washington, D.C. USCIS offices don't take walk-ins, so always go to the address on your notice.
